Host Courses Announced for Inaugural World Club ProAm

With less than a month to go to the tee-off of the inaugural World Club ProAm in KwaZulu-Natal, the province has once again set the stage for hosting world-class golfing events as the PGA of South Africa makes its announcement of the five selected KZN championship courses that will host this prestigious international tournament.

CEO of the PGA of South Africa, Ivano Ficalbi, explains, "90 holes of championship golf will be played across Durban Country Club, Zimbali Country Club, Cotswold Downs Golf Course, Umhlali Country Club and Princes Grant Golf Estate. These courses have been selected based on their ability to provide the tournament with a world-class PGA golfing experience that is made up of breath-taking coastal scenery, magnificent topography and the province's natural flora and fauna and wildlife. We are confident that each golfer will relish in an unforgettable golfing experience over the 5 days of play in KZN".

The World Club ProAm takes place from 15 – 22 February. The event will see golf clubs from around the world, PGA professionals and amateur golfers coming together to compete for the inaugural World Club ProAm title. The tournament is set to become a highlight on the international golfing calendar with a total prize and appearance fee fund of US $350 000 (that includes a minimum US $1000 appearance fee) and a unique format of 90-holes of combined individual Stableford championship for the professionals and a ProAm 4-ball alliance for the team.

of 90-holes of golf played across 5 premier championship courses. All registered PGA club professionals are invited to enter and identify three amateur golfers with official handicaps who will make up the entry.

There are two competitions that will be played simultaneously. The professionals compete in an individual stableford championship and the team in a ProAm 4-ball alliance. The winning PGA Professional will walk off with US$33 000 in prize money and the winning 4-ball will claim the coveted inaugural World Club ProAm team trophy along with daily prizes and give-aways. The runner-up, third and through to the tenth finishing 4-balls all win permissible prizes.

The entry includes a full golfing package, plus seven nights 4-star accommodation sharing, meals and three 5-star gala events.
