A Tough Day Brings Day 3 of World Club ProAm To A Close

Despite the cooler conditions of Day 3 of the PGA of South Africa | Mercedes-Benz World Club ProAm at Cotswold Downs Golf Course, the renowned challenges of being a tough scoring course took their toll on many of the golfers, and placed some teams under strain going into Day 4 of the tournament.

Cotswold Downs' international reputation for its world-class putting surfaces received the "thumbs up" from the golfers. Despite some very close calls, the hole-in-one Mercedes-Benz SLK prize is still up for grabs after some very hopeful shots fell within a metre short of the hole.

The South African teams continue to dominate the ProAm 4-Ball Alliance holding 7 out of the 10 top spots. Blue Valley Golf & Country Club (SA) finished ahead of the field in 1st place on 259 points. One shot behind, on 258 is Windsor Park (SA) in 2nd place followed by The Crete Golf Club (Greece) finishing 3rd on 256 points.

The internationals continue to lead the field in the Professional Individual Stableford, with Henrik Engdahll (The Crete Golf Club - Greece) finishing in tied 1st place with Steve Basson (Omeya Golf Club – Namibia) on 108 points. Holding 3rd spot is American Chad Ayres of Hillcrest Golf Club on 107 points and two shots behind on 105 points is Australian Aaron Cox (Caboolture Golf Club).

The best round of the day went to Wayne Krambeck from Cotswold Downs (SA) who finished on 39 points. Day 4 of the tournament travels back up the KwaZulu-Natal North Coast to take on the challenges of Prince's Grant Golf Estate.

About World Club ProAm

The PGA of South Africa / Mercedes-Benz World Club ProAm is hosted in Kwazulu-Natal and invites PGA professionals and amateur golfers to compete in a 4-ball for a total prize fund of US$350 000 including cash for the professionals, amateur prizes and no less than two hole-in-one prizes of two Mercedes-Benz SLK vehicles valued at over R1.2 million for both the professionals and amateurs.

World Club ProAm SOUTH AFRICA

The tournament is a unique format of 90-holes of golf played across 5 premier championship courses. All registered PGA club professionals were invited to enter and identify three amateur golfers with official handicaps who make up the entry.

There are two competitions played simultaneously. The professionals compete in an individual stableford championship and the team in a ProAm 4-ball alliance. The winning PGA Professional will walk off with ±US$33 000 in prize money and the winning 4-ball will claim the coveted inaugural World Club ProAm team trophy along with daily prizes and give-aways. The runner-up, third and through to the tenth finishing 4-balls all win permissible prizes.

The entry includes a full golfing package, plus seven nights 4-star accommodation sharing, meals and three 5-star gala events.
