All Eyes On The Trophy With One Day Remaining in The World Club ProAm

With one day to go and 72 holes completed in the PGA of South Africa | Mercedes-Benz World Club ProAm, all eyes are set on the inaugural trophy and winning the professional's grand cash prize of R340 000.

With wet weather predicted day 4 teed-off to a shotgun start at Prince's Grant Golf Estate, needless to say the heavens didn't open and play was concluded under glorious conditions. Today's stretch to 72 holes into the tournament was visibly taking its toll on some of the golfers as they fought the heat to finish Day 4. The notorious wind factor of Prince's Grant was a minor hindrance in today's game, offering some heat relief and boosting the morale of the golfers as they prepare for the final leg of the tournament.

It was the South African teams who once again emerged top of the leader board in the ProAm 4-Ball Alliance. River Club (SA) moved up the field from yesterday's tied 5th spot to finish 1st on 346 points. Blue Valley Golf & Country Club (SA) finished 2nd on 341, with Cotswold Downs 2 shots behind in 3rd place on 339.

Henrik Engdahll (The Crete Golf Club - Greece) played another solid game and maintained his lead in the Professional Individual Stableford finishing on 144 points. Australian Aaron Cox (Caboolture Golf Club Australia) moved up the field from 4th place to 2nd finishing 1 shot behind the leader on 143. Steve Basson (Omeya Golf Club – Namibia) dropped down the leader board one place to finish 3rd on 142, only two shots behind the leader.

The best round of the day went to Greg Upton from River Club (SA) who made an impressive finish on 40 points. The tournament makes its final journey to Durban Country Club for Day 5, where the last 18-holes wait.
