International Teams Push Forward On Round 2 Of World Club ProAm

The favourable weather conditions on Round 2 of the PGA of SA | Mercedes Benz World Club ProAm saw the internationals move up the field in the Professional Stableford played at Mount Edgecombe Country Club Course 1. Australian Aaron Cox from Gardiners Run Golf Course and title defender, Sweden's Henrik Engdahl from the Crete Golf Club, finished in tied 2nd place on 73 points, just 2 shots behind South African Christo Roos who is still holding the lead at the end of Round 2 on 75 points. Namibian Steve Basson from Omeya Golf Club is holding onto his top 3 finish, but tied 3rd place with fellow South Africans Ryan Reid from Serengeti Golf Club and Johan van Vuuren from Woodhill Country Club 2.

In the ProAm 4-Ball alliance, Modderfontein Golf Club is holding the lead at the end of the second round finishing ahead of the field on 178 points, and are closely followed by Blue Valley Golf & Country Club 3 on 176 points. Mount Edgecombe Golf Course 2, Paarl Golf Club and Royal Johannesburg & Kensington Golf Club are lying tied 3rd four shots further down the field.

Round 3 will present a new set of challenges as the golfers head inland to face the next 18-holes of undulating challenges at Cotswold Downs Golf Estate.

About World Club ProAm

The PGA of South Africa / Mercedes-Benz World Club ProAm is hosted in Kwazulu-Natal and invites PGA professionals and amateur golfers to compete in a 4-ball for a total prize fund of US$210 000 including cash for the professionals, amateur prizes and two hole-in-one prizes of two Mercedes-Benz SLK 200 vehicles jointly valued at over R1.2 million for both the professionals and amateurs.

The tournament is a unique format of 90-holes of golf played across 5 premier championship courses. All registered PGA club professionals were invited to enter and identify three amateur golfers with official handicaps who make up the entry. There are two competitions played simultaneously. The professionals compete in an individual stableford championship and the team in a ProAm 4-ball alliance. The entry includes a full golfing package, plus seven nights 4-star accommodation sharing, meals and three 5-star gala events.
