Round 4 of World Club ProAm Finishes On A High Note

Round 4 of the PGA of SA | Mercedes Benz World Club ProAm ended on a high note at Prince's Grant Golf Estate, with a shake up in the leader board going into the final round at Durban Country Club.

After playing a consistently solid game all week, title defender, PGA Professional Henrik Engdahl from Sweden, shifted into 1st place with a 2 stroke lead on 146 points, where he will lead the Professional Stableford into the 5th and final round. This comes after South African Christo Roos, who led the competition from the outset, dropped down to 5th place. Namibian, Steve Basson remains resilient in the top 3 and finished 2nd on 144 points, 2 shots ahead of South African Andrew Corthing, who has moved up the field to 3rd place. Australian, Aaron Cox, who is last year's 2nd place winner, dropped down the field to 10th place after a disappointing 137 point finish.

The soaring temperatures on the course did little to ease the mounting pressure among the teams as they battled it out in the ProAm 4-Ball alliance for a secure top 3 position going into the final round. Modderfontein Golf Club managed to hold onto their consistent lead by 2 shots ahead of fellow South African rivals, Strand Golf Club1 and Centurion Country Club, who are tied 2nd on 346 points.

It was pure golfing glory for South African PGA Professional Dan Alex-Heys from Stand Golf Club, who carded the best round for the day on 89 points.

An exciting final round will tee-off at Durban Country Club, where all eyes will be on the leaders to see who will have the nerves of steel to clinch the 2nd PGA of SA | Mercedes Benz World Club ProAm title and team trophy.

About World Club ProAm

The PGA of South Africa / Mercedes-Benz World Club ProAm is hosted in Kwazulu-Natal and invites PGA professionals and amateur golfers to compete in a 4-ball for a total prize fund of US$210 000 including cash for the professionals, amateur prizes and two hole-in-one prizes of two Mercedes-Benz SLK 200 vehicles jointly valued at over R1.2 million for both the professionals and amateurs.

The tournament is a unique format of 90-holes of golf played across 5 premier championship courses. All registered PGA club professionals were invited to enter and identify three amateur golfers with official handicaps who make up the entry. There are two competitions played simultaneously. The professionals compete in an individual stableford championship and the team in a ProAm 4-ball alliance. The entry includes a full golfing package, plus seven nights 4-star accommodation sharing, meals and three 5-star gala events.
