Pressure Mounts For Home Stretch of World Club ProAm

As the PGA of SA World Club ProAm moves into the home stretch, the pressure is starting to mount with impressive scores being carded at the end of the 3rd round hosted at Prince's Grant Golf Estate. The absence of the notorious wind on this course played its bit to help ease the nerves of the teams as they teed-off to favourable weather conditions and world-renowned coastal scenery.

While French PGA Professional Julien Gressier from Chateau de Raray held onto the lead in the Professional Stableford by a 3 shot lead on 114 points, German Christoph Günther from Project Golf Club has made his charge up the field to win the third round on 2 under par with 38 points. He now holds 2nd place on the leader board with a total of 111 points, 4 shots ahead of South African Paul Marks of Woodhill Country Club and Kenneth Dube from Mananga Swaziland in tied 3rd on 107 points. Title defender, Henrik Engdahl from Greece's Crete Golf Club shot 29 for the round and finished tied 7th with South African Ben Fouchee from Paarl Golf Club on 104 points.

In the ProAm 4-ball alliance, the South African team from River Club finished on a notable 86 points that has placed them top of the leader board on a total of 249 points and leaders going into the final round. Fellow South African team from Durban Country Club are close on their heels just one shot behind in 2nd place on 248 points. The German team from Project Golf Club have moved up the field and will be chasing the South Africans for a shot at victory after finishing 4th on 243 total points.

Round 4 moves to Durban Country Club, where the final rounds of the tournament will be played out over the next two days.
