World Club ProAm Prepares For The Best Week In Golf

No other sport creates the opportunity to 'live the dream' of a professional like a ProAm golf tournament. For avid amateurs, these events are top of the 'must-play' bucket list for the ultimate golf experience. Taking this experience to even greater heights is the PGA of SA World Club ProAm, which will see local and international PGA Professionals and their amateur teammates teeing-up for the best week in golf from 27 February to 5 March in KwaZulu-Natal.

While ProAms are conventionally one-day events linked to major tournaments, the World Club ProAm will offer a unique five-day golf extravaganza across 4 championship courses – Durban Country Club, Zimbali Country Club, Prince's Grant Golf Estate and Cotswold Downs Golf Estate. A Professional prize pool of US$210 000, luxury vehicle hole-in-one prizes for the professional and the amateur as well as cutting-edge golf apparel in daily prizes are certain to stir up the competitive spirit of the tournament.

Beyond the lucrative prize pool, the World Club ProAm will supercede expectations by delivering an unrivalled 'Pro Tour' golf experience in one of the world's leading golf destinations – the province of KwaZulu-Natal. Five-star luxury accommodation at the internationally recognised Hilton Hotel in Durban, 5-star gala events and a fully personalised baggage master service to transport each golfer's clubs are among the highlights that set this ProAm apart from any other ProAm on the international PGA golf calendar.

"The World Club ProAm will offer amateurs more than a round of golf with their PGA Club Professional. We are preparing for an all-encompassing golf tour experience where amateurs will have the opportunity to live out their 'pro tour' golf dreams alongside their PGA Professional on not one, but four championship courses. With so much on offer, it is going to be a week of exhilarating golf and global friendships," said Beverley Theron, Event Director.

Entries are still open, so its not too late for PGA Professionals to their team registered to play. For more information visit www.worldclubproam.com.

Ends.
